

As a tribute to all of your hard work and dedication, I would like to share some of the images I have collected over the last five years.

On behalf of the Nursery
Cooperative staff,
I thank you!

Camden, AL

Weyerhaeuser: Pine Hill Nursery

Those trees were Bama fans and these over here are Auburn fans! Beats anything I've ever seen David!

Selma, AL

Arborgen Nursery

No, Gary's problem was different, these look like they are all Auburn fans.

Shellman, GA

Arborgen

The real reason I visited the Shellman nursery.
The best fried chicken I've ever eaten.

IFCO

A photograph of three men standing in a rice field. The man on the left is wearing a white short-sleeved shirt, khaki shorts, and sunglasses. The man in the center is wearing a light blue short-sleeved shirt, blue jeans, and a tan hat. The man on the right is wearing a white short-sleeved shirt, blue jeans, and a black shoulder bag. They are standing on a dirt path next to a raised bed of rice seedlings. In the background, there are several large green tents and a line of trees under a cloudy sky.

Mike, I think David has seen something like this before and I'm afraid they are not Georgia fans.

Yep, a seed source issue. These seedlings are from Tuscaloosa.

And here and there

Dan Land and Barry grafting Toomer's Oaks.

Scott planting some shortleaf pine.

My dad helping me plant trees.

Plating out roots for Pythium counts.

Me and Tommy building an irrigation system.

Working hard!

Barry and our student worker, Zach.

Tom, keep reaching for the stars.

The Forest Health class I taught in 2009.

Tommy and Dr. Art Chappelka, my sports buddies.

Dr. Jim Barnett,
my mentor from
the Forest Service.

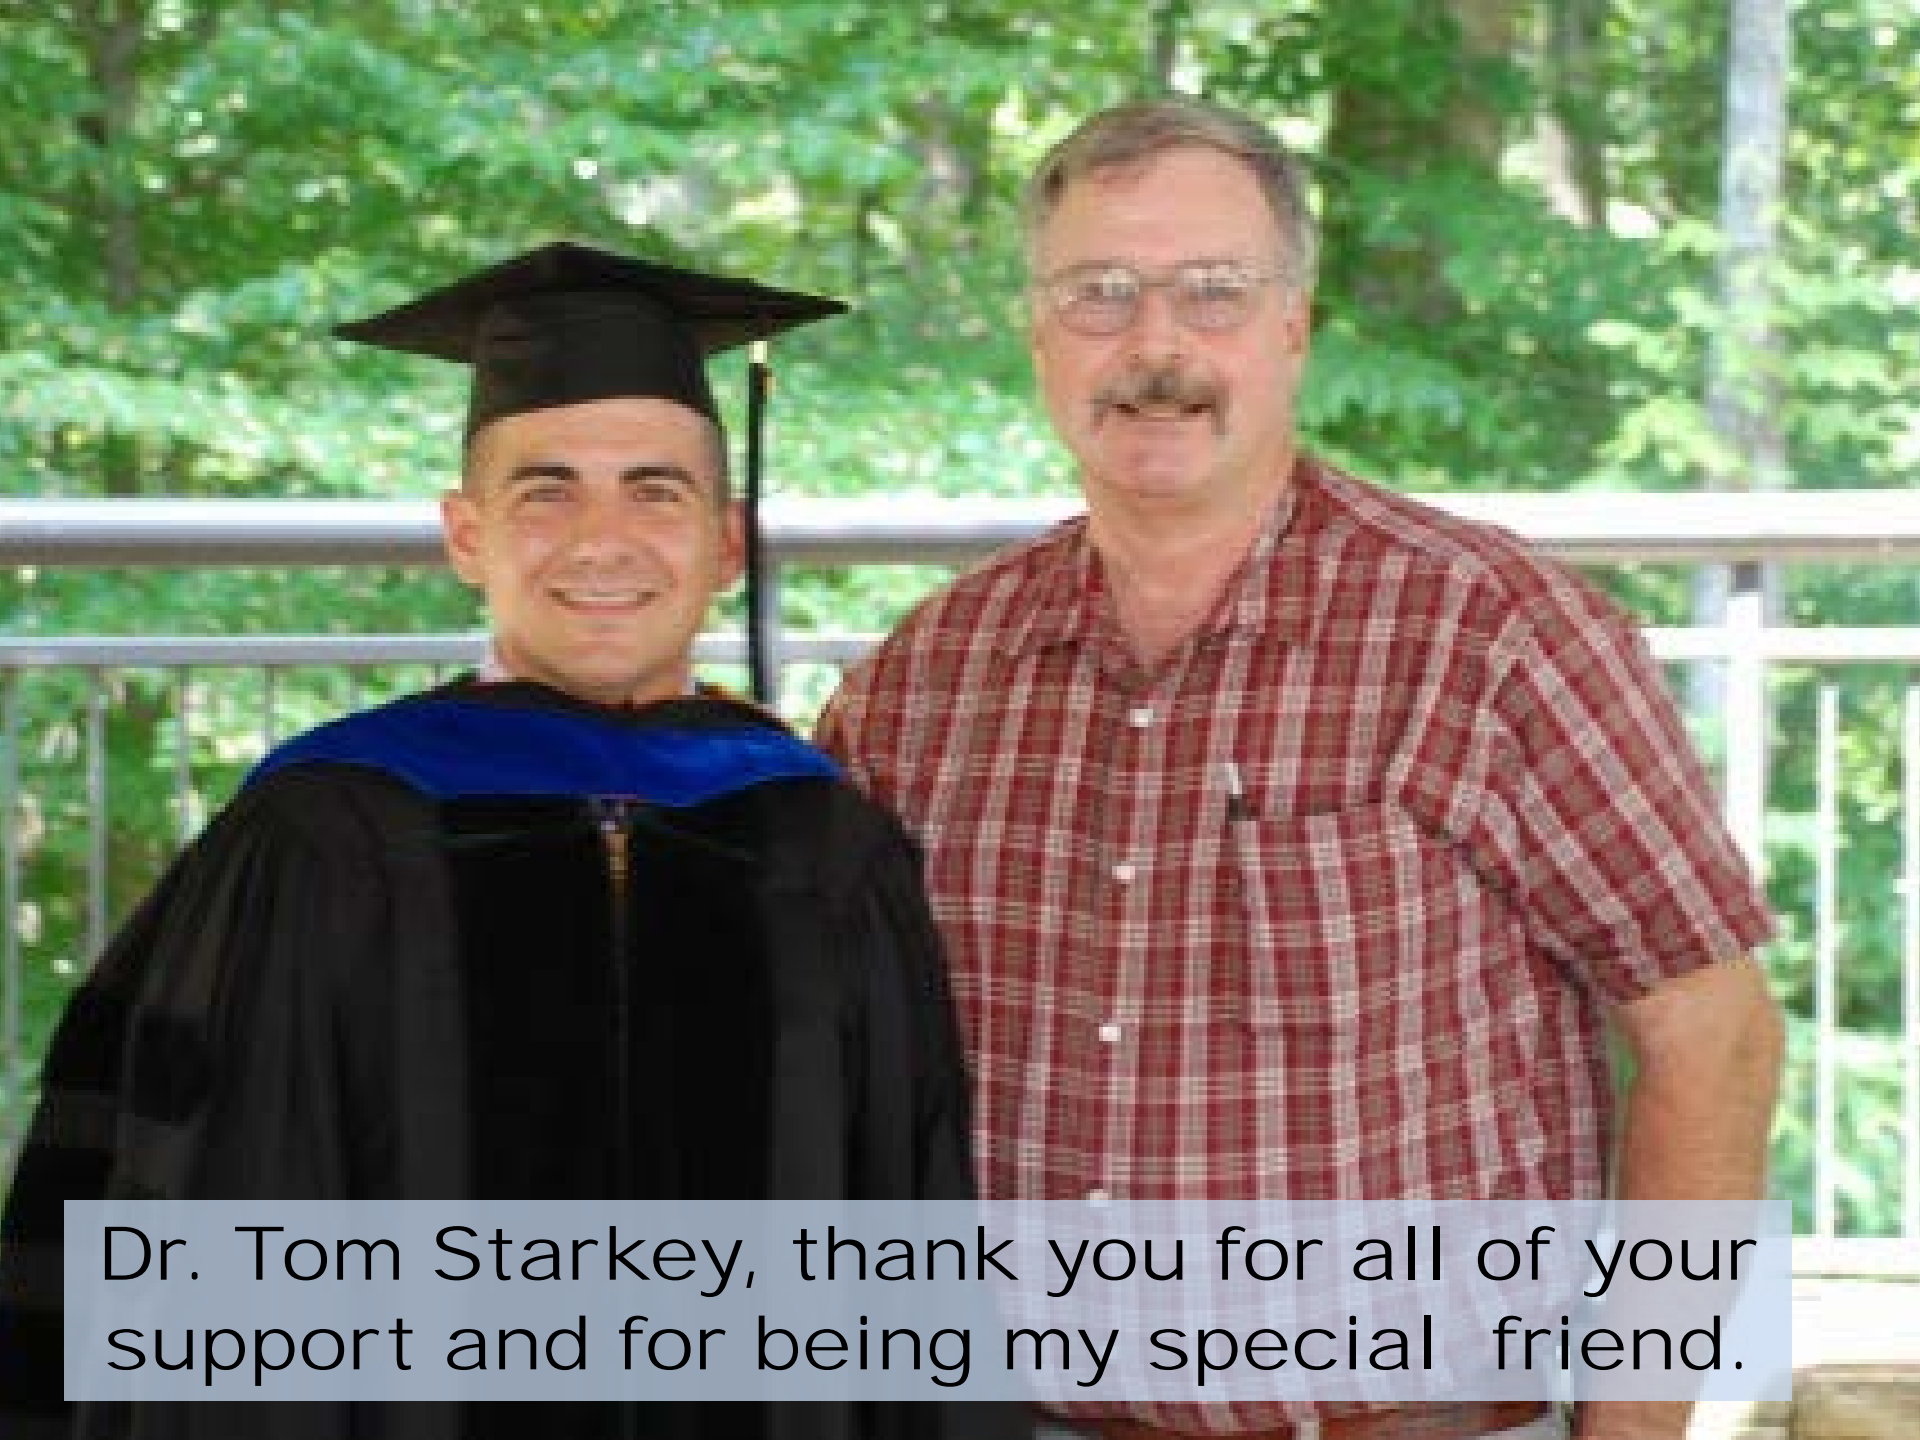

Dr. George, my best friend from grad school.

Give me a break!

Barry, thank you for all of your hard work,
the long talks, and
being my friend.

Dr. Tom Starkey, thank you for all of your support and for being my special friend.

Dr. David South, thank you for being a friend and wonderful teacher.

Dr. Scott Enebak, thank you for all of your guidance, for being my colleague, and.....

.....being my friend.

I will be an Assistant Professor of Horticulture in the Agricultural Sciences
Department at Louisiana Tech University.

I sincerely thank all of you for supporting the Nursery Cooperative and allowing me to be a part of it for the last five years.

I hope to continue my relationship with the Nursery Cooperative throughout my career.

From my family to you, thank you and God Bless.
(Baby Jackson #2 will be here any day.)
