

Interdisciplinary Studies—Update

October 19, 2010

Background

Program approved by:

- ➤ AU Curriculum Committee Oct. 2, 2008
- ➤ Board of Trustees Jan. 29, 2009
- > ACHE June 26, 2009

Program Endorsed by AU Senate Oct. 7, 2008

Recent activities

- ➤ Director hired effective Aug. 1, 2010
- ➤ UNIV 2190 taught:
- ✓ Fall '09 with 13 students
- ✓ Spring '10 with 20 students
- ✓ Fall '10 with 40 students

Current Enrollment

- First graduate in Summer, 2010
- > Two students should graduate this semester
- > Six students with approved plans of study
- Four students who have approved capstone projects (UNIV 4980)—two are completed, two underway
- > A number of students in the pipeline

Recruitment and Promotion Activities

- > Announcement in "This Week at AU"
- > Article in "The Plainsman"
- > Email to students in selected programs who did not have a full schedule
- Presentations to groups including some UNIV courses
- ➤ Counseling by IDSC staff with prospective students

Recruitment and Promotion Activities

- Development of a preliminary brochure and website—working on updates of both
- ► Hosting an event Wednesday, Oct. 20 to bring together current and potential students with advisors and potential faculty mentors (86 people have accepted invitations to attend)

Oversight Committee

- Oversight committee met Aug. 30, 2010
- Plan to have a minimum of one meeting per semester
- Have established a password protected on-line site for posting student materials to facilitate committee review and comment

Future Plans

- Visit or revisit universities with strong Interdisciplinary Studies programs
- > Improve brochure and website
- ➤ Host events bringing students, faculty and advisors together every semester
- Develop a distance education version of UNIV 2190

Questions?

Contact: Kathryn Flynn

flynnka@auburn.edu

4-7277

