

REPORTING STUDENTS OF CONCERN

Auburn University Faculty Senate
June 16, 2015

Haven L. Hart

Division of Student Affairs
Student Conduct and Case Management/Student Advocacy

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
DIVISION OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

Student Advocacy & Case Management

Purpose:

- Aid students in the successful navigation of challenging, personal life issues, critical incidents, hardships and emergencies that may impede a student's success and retention at Auburn University.
- Serve as as an advocate, liaison or resource to students and families during times of student distress, need or emergency.

Reporting a concern or incident

www.auburn.edu/studentconduct

Click the “Report an Incident” tab

- Report a Non-Academic Violation
- Report a Student Academic Honesty Code Violation
- Report Concerning or Threatening Behaviors

Report an Incident or Concern

Report a Non-Academic Violation

Non-academic violations include behavior unrelated to the Student Academic Honesty Code (cheating, falsifying or misusing forms for academic purposes, plagiarism). Violations covered in the Code of Student Discipline and the Residence Life Community Standards include, but are not limited to, misuse of alcohol, disorderly conduct, drug use, theft, hazing, harassment (verbal or physical), physical assault, vandalism, excessive noise, residence hall visitation, etc.

For questions, please contact the Office of Student Conduct at conduct@auburn.edu or 334-844-1305.

Report a Student Academic Honesty Code Violation

Academic Honesty Code violations include, but are not limited to, cheating, aiding others in the act of cheating, falsifying, altering, or misusing a document for academic purposes, and plagiarizing others work. Note: disruptive or concerning classroom behavior represents a Code of Student Discipline violation and should be reported as a non-academic violation.

Report Concerning or Threatening Behaviors

Auburn University students, faculty, staff and others are encouraged to report students who are struggling with academic, personal, or emotional difficulties or who may be exhibiting threatening, worrisome or other concerning behaviors. Please contact the Coordinator of Case Management and Student Advocacy at casemgr@auburn.edu or 334-844-1423.

Student Conduct

About Us
Policies & Resources
For Students
For Parents
For Faculty & Staff
Report and Incident or Concern

Contact Us

Student Conduct
Student Center, Suite 3231
255 Heisman Drive
Auburn, AL 36849-5596

Phone: 334-844-1305
Fax: 334-844-2354
Email: conduct@auburn.edu

Division of Student Affairs | More Division Websites | Site Feedback | Privacy | Copyright © 2014

Important Numbers

Emergency: 911

(Auburn City Police will be dispatched to scene)

Non-emergency: 334-501-3100

(Auburn City Police – non-emergency)

Student Conduct/Student Concerns: 334-844-1305

(Students of Concern; Student Conduct)

Threat Assessment Team: 334-844-5010

(Threat to safety or well-being of others)

