This is Research: Faculty Symposium 2015

Date: September 30, 2015

Place: Auburn University Hotel and Dixon Conference Center

Purpose:

Recognize faculty engaged in outstanding research.

Encourage and establish interdisciplinary connections among Auburn faculty across disciplines (via poster sessions and lightning presentations); and with researchers at other institutions in our region engaged in research related to Auburn's strategic interdisciplinary research initiatives.

Showcase the work of creative scholarship (every other year beginning in 2016).

Enhance the external visibility of our research through attendance by the Research Advisory Board members, industry representatives, foundation representatives....
