

Auburn University
Chapter of AAUP
October 2019

AAUP Overview: AAUP After the Janus Decision

Summary

HISTORY OF AAUP AT AUBURN UNIVERSITY

AAUP AFTER THE JANUS
DECISION

CURRENT AAUP NATIONAL AND CHAPTER SERVICES AND FUNCTIONS

History of AAUP at Auburn University

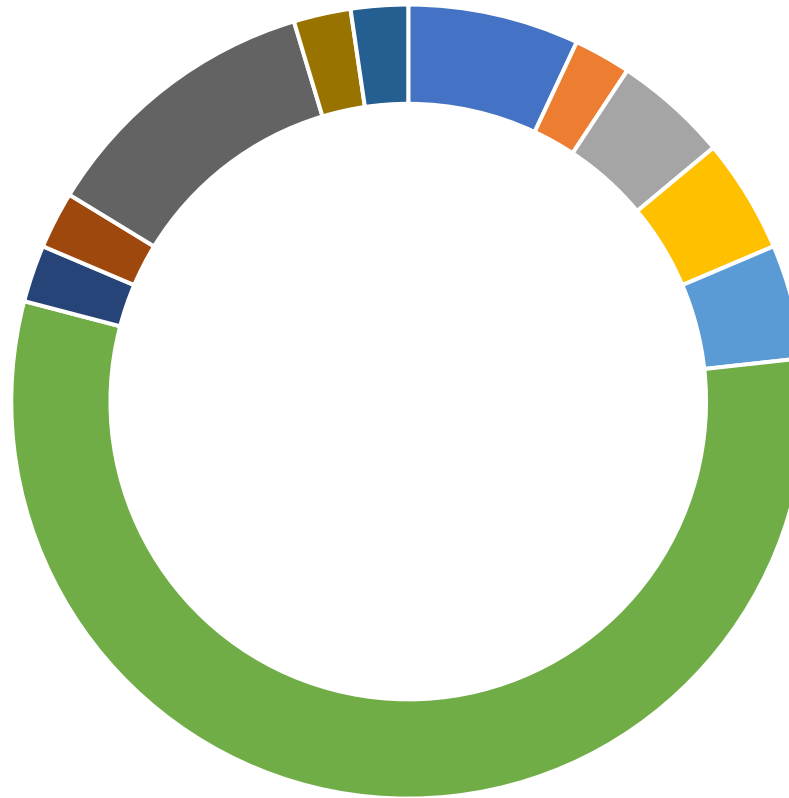

Major Issues of Past AAUP Concern

Shared governance

- Overreach of BOT
- Faculty input in presidential searches
- Faculty input in other presidential searches
- Academic due process

Academic freedom

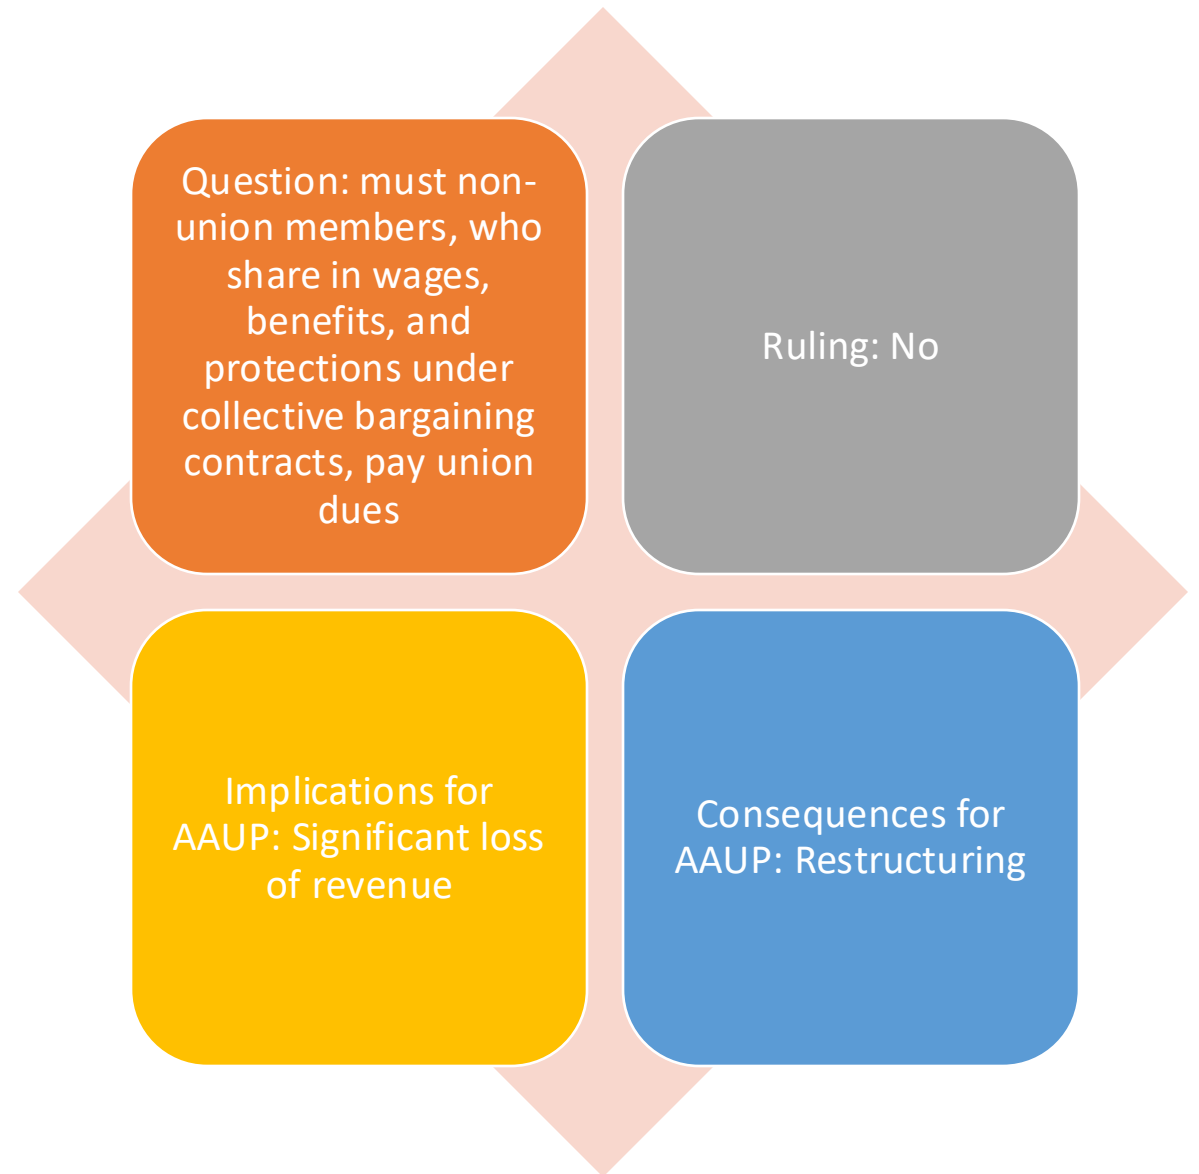

Current Membership by College

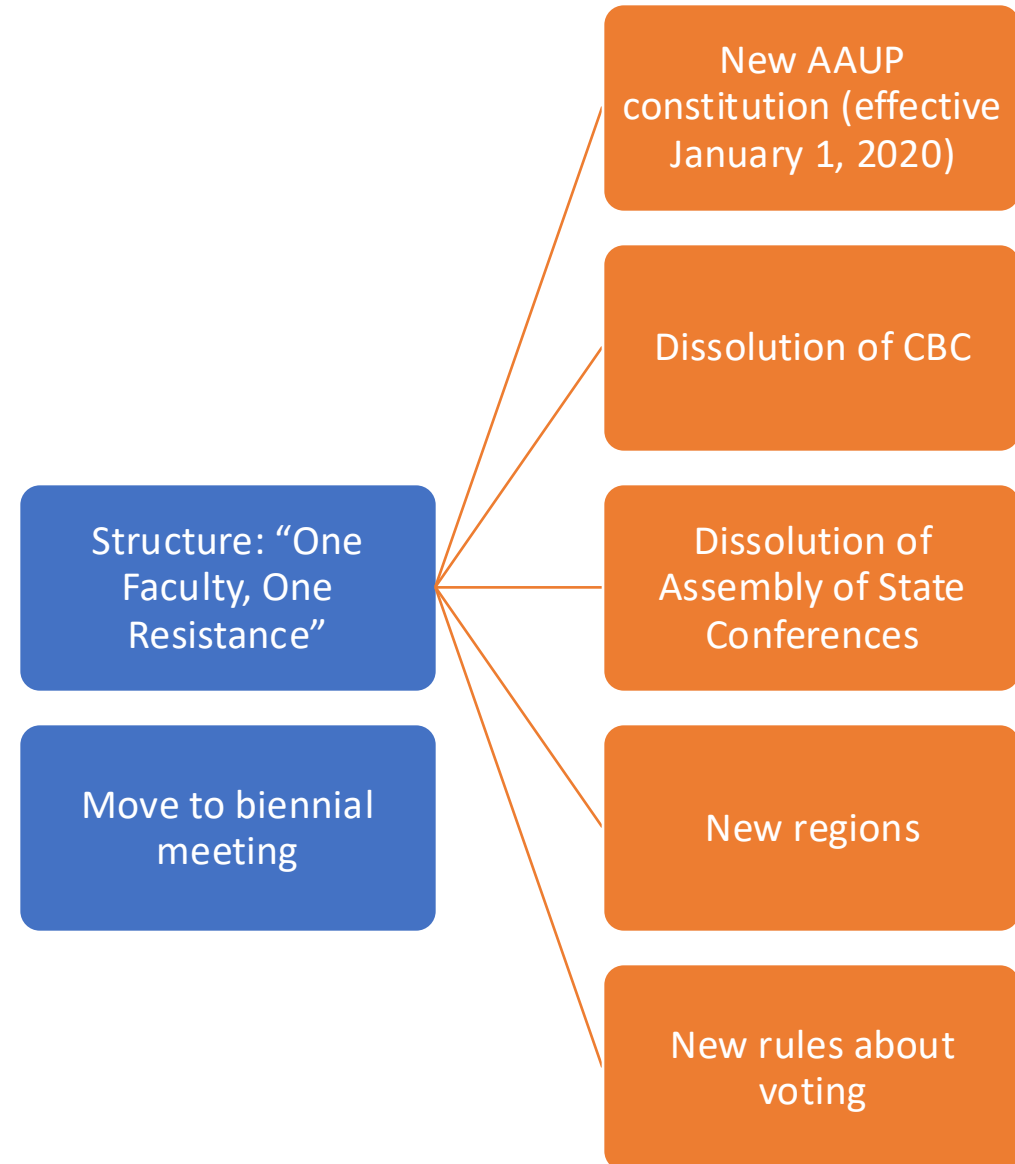

■ Agriculture ■ Architecture & Design ■ Business ■ Education ■ Engineering ■ CLA ■ Nursing ■ Pharmacy ■ Sciences & Mathematics ■ Veterinary Medicine ■ Central Administration

AAUP after the Janus Decision

Janus v. AFSCME Council 31

Restructuring

Biennial Meeting

Each chapter has the right to send one delegate/250 members, up to a maximum of 10 delegates per chapter

The more delegates a chapter has, the more “strength” their votes will have

Delegates must be voted upon by secret ballot by chapter membership, including officers, unless there is only one candidate

Implications for Auburn

Impact of vote at national meeting

Focus on recruitment

National
recommendations:
issue campaigns

Compensation
Shared
governance
Contingent
faculty

Current AAUP National and Chapter Services and Functions

National AAUP Services

- Committee A on Academic Freedom and Tenure
- Research
- Legal Program
- Government Relations
- Education and Training
 - Summer Institute
 - Webinars

Policy Documents and Reports Eleventh Edition

Chapter Functions

General meeting at least once a semester

Meetings with university leadership

Committee A

Issue advocacy

Contact

See our webpage at <http://auburn.edu/aaup>

Or contact AAUP AU Chapter President, Mitchell Brown,
brown11@auburn.edu